GNOSIS – Mediterranean Institute for Management Science

Duties and Responsibilities:

Founder and Managing Director

2008 - present

EMRBI - EuroMed Research Business Institute (www.emrbi.com)

Duties and Responsibilities:

Founder and President

An overview of the Institute - EMRBI

The European and Mediterranean (EuroMed) region includes all member states of the European Union, along with non-EU countries bordering the South Mediterranean and Middle East. EMRBI aims to create and disseminate business knowledge by research, teaching, training, and consulting researchers, universities, and businesses, governments and other organizations in the EuroMed (European and Mediterranean) region.

The EuroMed Research Business Institute seeks to contribute to and share the understanding of different business environments and trends in the region, to provide an updated overview of the emerging business practices, and to stimulate and nourish dialogue in the countries of the region and neighboring countries.

EMRBI has a very strong network around the region with hundreds of Universities, Organisations, Research Centres and individual members. It undertakes research and scholarly activities, while offering also a range of business-related professional services, both through its own resources and/or through associated organisations and individuals. EMRBI pursues funded and sponsored research from a wide scope of sources and aims to add value to local and international knowledge, but also to international collaboration and peace.

More specifically EMRBI is:

- Conducting cross-cultural studies, joint research, consulting, and fundraising through the EuroMed Research Centre (EMRBI's Research Centre) and partnering institutions;
- Encouraging interaction between the business community and the academia, and assisting academics and practitioners in keeping up-to-date with business developments in the region;
- Developing joint programs across;
- Aiding towards the economic development of the region;
- Disseminating research findings, new research areas, techniques and conceptual developments through the EuroMed Journal of Business (EMRBI's Official Journal) www.emeraldinsight.com/emjb.htm, published by Emerald, the leading publisher of management research in the world;
- Offering business consulting, in-house business training and workshops for executives;
- Promoting excellence and innovation in business research (e.g. Emerald/EMRBI Business Research Award for Young Researchers);
- Offering Honorary Fellowships to individuals in recognition of extraordinary and distinguished services to the Institute, or to the Academic, Professional or Political environment;
- Organizing an annual conference (EuroMed Academy of Business Conference). The conference has established itself as one of the major conferences of its kind in the EuroMed region, in terms of size, quality of content, and standing of attendees.

Many of the papers presented contribute significantly to the business knowledge base. The conference attracts hundreds of leading scholars from leading universities and principal executives and politicians from all over the world with the participation or intervention of Presidents, Prime Ministers, Ministers, Company CEOs, Presidents of Chambers, and other leading figures.

- Contributing to peace in the region by developing cooperation between countries and people.

CIRCLE - Centre for International Research in Consumers Location and their Environments

Duties and Responsibilities:

Member, Board Member and Regional Director

An overview of the Centre - CIRCLE

CIRCLE was formed in 2004 and develops strategic alliances with a number of universities. The Centre (CIRCLE) engages in interdisciplinary research and consultancy projects in order to explore and examine consumer behaviour in local, regional, national or international contexts for a range of service industries including events, finance, hospitality, leisure, marketing, retailing and tourism. Published work is disseminated with the dual purpose of assisting managers and practitioners who work in the industry as well as fuelling further academic studies and debates.

2006 - 2009

AGBA – the Academy for Global Business Advancement

Duties and Responsibilities:

President, AGBA Europe Chapter

An overview of the Academy - AGBA

AGBA – the Academy for Global Business Advancement is a worldwide network of professionals committed to facilitate dissemination of scholarly research findings in the field of global business and entrepreneurship. The main purpose of AGBA is to provide ongoing open forums to discuss and analyze global business and global entrepreneurship from different perspectives and viewpoints, and thus to improve understanding of the underlying forces that: (1) have an impact on global developments and (2) shape the destiny of developing countries in the contemporary globalized economy.

The objectives of AGBA are to foster education and to advance professional knowledge and standards in various areas of global business and global entrepreneurship by: (1) facilitating the exchange of information and ideas among educators and professionals, entrepreneurs, and bureaucrats, and between the business and academic fields; (2) encouraging and assisting basic and applied research activities that advance knowledge of global business and entrepreneurship development and operations, and increase the available body of teaching materials; (3) facilitating the interdisciplinary dialogue concerning global business and global entrepreneurship issues as they relate to academic, business and government sectors.
